STUDY THE BIBLE

WITH MADELON MAUPIN AT CEDARS CAMPS!

GENESIS: WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

In 2019, we covered the background of Genesis and the first 25 chapters in Genesis Part 1. In 2020 we will continue our study of "Genesis: Book of Origins - Part 2" by taking a deep dive into the last half of Genesis, chapters 26-30. Here the family story of Abraham's kinsmen continues, beginning with Isaac, continuing with Jacob and ending with Joseph. These may be familiar stories but we will be looking in fresh ways at their cultural, political and geographical implications as well as how their spiritual meaning can be brought forward to today.

For those who were unable to join us in 2019, there will be a brief overview of the background of Genesis, including authorship, dating, creation stories and structure. This will also be a helpful review for those who are returning. And watch for the announcement of a new Double CD (or MP3) talk on "Genesis: Book of Origins" that Madelon will be releasing in the opening months of 2020. Check BibleRoads.com for details. This recording will address key points covered in Genesis part 1, such as the dating scholarship that shapes how we might read the book, along with themes of the 'reversal of the impossible' as well as the divine promises woven throughout. Study Guides: Participants will receive a new workbook with 4-6 study questions per chapter. In addition to preparing for class sessions by answering the questions, the workbook provides a way to collect and organize notes from research and class discussions.
