Bible Talks with Madelon Maupin

Friday night we begin with Psalms, the glorious poetry of the Hebrew Scriptures. Who wrote them? What types are there? How is the Psalter organized? How can we pray with them more deeply?

Saturday morning we explore the first volume of Luke's work, the Gospel. Looking at historical context, structure, themes, unique material, we'll see how this only Gentile writer of the entire Bible provided such a gifted look into the story of Christ Jesus and his ministry.

Saturday afternoon we explore Luke's 2nd volume, "The Acts of the Apostles", where he continues themes established in the Gospel but this time on the life of the early Church. What did they face and how does Luke unfold his story geographically, theologically, historically? How does their example serve Christians today? We'll explore these and other major parts of Acts, such as the role of the Holy Spirit.

Cost: Each session is $20 or $50 for all three. Sunday School students are welcome at no charge. Please pre-register with the attached form and RSVP to Tori Blackhart at torimedia@gmail.com or call Tori at 617-678-2667. Lunch will be available for purchase at the Church. See the registration form.
